Budget For the Holidays Workshop

The holidays can be a magical time of year, filled with the warmth of family and friends and the joy of giving -- or receiving -- the perfect gift. But, too often that magic comes with a heavy price tag to pay long after the holidays are over.

Learn how to avoid the stress and strain of holiday overspending at the Budget for the Holidays workshop.

Luis Montoya, HOC's Financial Literacy Counselor, will show you how you can budget so that you will be able to enjoy the holidays and start the New Year out right.
