Explanation for New Resolution

At its regular meeting on October 7, 2015, the Commission authorized staff to draw, on a tax-exempt basis, up to $6,875,000 from the original PNC Bank, N.A. line of credit ($60 million) to prepay the outstanding mortgage and redeem the related tax-exempt bonds (Resolution 15-80A). The interest rate on a tax-exempt draw is 68.5% of the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus 38 basis points.

While preparing to issue an opinion on the tax-exempt nature of the draw, HOC’s bond counsel, Kutak Rock, LLP, advised that the draws on the PNC Bank, N.A. line of credit cannot be a tax-exempt draw because the sale of the portion of the site to EYA constitutes a change in use from a governmentally owned project to privately owned project under current IRS regulations.
Kutak Rock further outlined certain other conditions that would have to be met to qualify the draw for tax-exemption, but those conditions cannot be met, given the nature of the Chevy Chase Lake transaction with EYA—sale of the units to high income purchasers without price restrictions and the installment nature of the payments.

Staff agrees and therefore requests the Commission’s approval of Resolution 15-85SS to supersede Resolution 15-80A and to authorize the draw on a taxable basis, with interest payable at the contractual rate of LIBOR plus 90 basis points. No other change is requested; the loan is still projected to remain outstanding for 24 months and will be repaid from permanent financing proceeds of the multifamily building.

Commissioners were asked to vote via email by 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, October 14, 2015.

The resolution was adopted upon a motion by Chair Pro Tem Nelson and seconded by Commissioner Piñero. Affirmative votes were cast by Commissioners Roman, Nelson, Hatcher, McFarland and Piñero. Commissioner Simon was necessarily unavailable and did not participate in the vote.
